Eastern Michigan Agricultural Society.

YPSILANTI, January 12.—The Eastern Michigan Agricultural Society have elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: President, Wm. Campbell; vice-presidents, John McDougall, Norman Redner; treasurer, Wm. S. Whittlesey; secretary, Frank P. Bogardus; marshal, C. L. Yost; executive committee, Henry Stumphheusen, John E. Betts, J. C. Bemis, W. H. Hawkins, Morton F. Case. The secretary's and treasurer's reports show that the organization is now standing on a firm and substantial foundation. The members are working together in peace and harmony and with the exception of a small balance due on rent of grounds, every outstanding obligation has been promptly liquidated. A committee was appointed to revise the premium lists as follows: Cattle, N. Redner; sheep, Benjamin D. Kelly; swine, James C. Beemis and William Dansingberg; horses, B. F. Bennett and W. H. Hawkins.
